Will I ever be known
Ever be seen
Will I ever be understood

From highs and lows
The pain inside
Know my sadness

Have you felt it
Do you understand
Can you see it
Though the cracks in my hand
Look through my lenses
Just to try and see
But I know you won't
I know you won't

Maybe no matter what
Wonder if I'm good enough
I'm still on the razor's edge
Was always stuck in my head
Cause I'm starting to think it's a waste of time
To always be stuck underneath my mind

Do you see it
Behind my smile
There's a sadness
And I don't know why
I can't put the words to feeling
But I know it's always there
So I stay inside my head
And I wonder if they care

Maybe no matter what
Wonder if I'm good enough
I'm still on the razor's edge
Was always stuck in my head
Cause I'm starting to think it's a waste of time
To always be stuck underneath my mind

Stop my head from wearing itself out
Making fears from the wind
Afraid of nothing
Have you felt it
Do you understand
Can you see it
Though the cracks in my hand
Look through my lenses
Just to try and see
But I know you won't
I know you won't

Maybe no matter what
Wonder if I'm good enough
Was always stuck in my head
Cause I'm starting to think it's a waste of time

To always be stuck underneath my mind

Maybe no matter what

Wonder if I'm good enough

I'm still on the razor's edge

Was always stuck in my head

Cause I'm starting to think it's a waste of time

To always be stuck underneath my mind
