

I'm underwater and I can't breathe
I see you right there, standing next to me
And your hand in my heart
And your hand in my soul

And I feel alive again
And I feel alive again

I'm underground, hiding from the sun
Stay where it's cold from all of them
You take my eyes and pull them from the death inside
You give me life again, again
I'm underground, hiding from the sun
You take my eyes and pull them from

And I feel alive again
And I feel alive again

Hold my hand again
'Cause this love will never end
Hold my hand again
'Cause this love will never end
(And I feel alive again)

And I feel alive again
And I feel alive again
