Bilmuri

Walk through just to see it now
Shut down to repeat it again
I think I think too much
Don't feel like it's enough
The mind can hurt to touch
Does it make a difference?
(Does it make a difference?)

I just keep wondering who I am

I close my eyes, I feel so tired
But it makes no difference
Can I be alive?
Let go and smile?
Not feel indifference?

Repeat the day too much
All blur the same enough
Need something for us
To keep from feeling stuck
(To keep from feeling stuck)

I stripped away the moment

I close my eyes, I feel so tired
But it makes no difference
Can I be alive?
Let go and smile?
Not feel indifference?

Look into my eyes
To see why I'm alive

I miss you
Need a touch of chaos on my lips
Need to be in it from time to time
I'm either scared or bored
The worst is when it's both
Why can't I find my head?
Oh, yeah

I close my eyes, I feel so tired (Feel so tired)
But it makes no difference (No, no, it makes no difference)
Can I be alive? (Can I be alive?)
Let go and smile?
Not feel indifference? (Feel indifference?)
