Bilmuri

Think I understand
Why I'm losing sleep
Keep staring at the wall
Feeling incomplete

So hold me 'cause it's a bitter world
But we can make it beautiful
So hold me 'cause it's a cruel world
But you make it so beautiful to me

Can't get control of the world
I stand at its feet
Can only be where I am
With the ones next to me

So hold me 'cause it's a bitter world
But we can make it beautiful
So hold me 'cause it's a cruel world
But you make it so beautiful to me

So hold me 'cause it's a bitter world
But we can make it beautiful
So hold me 'cause it's a cruel world
But you make it so beautiful to me
