

More Than Hate

Bilmuri

You act holy
You ain't clean
You're a demon underneath
All your sweetness
Is a fake
You get evil
You're insane

I'm not saying that I'm perfect
So why am I the one that's hurting?

You love to set my life on fire
Feel it burning in my veins
Sick of taking all this heat
Tired of catching all these strays
You keep screaming at me
Trying to tell me who to be
Baby it's obnoxious
Can't believe you used to be a part of me
Now it's getting hard to be
Stuck inside your heart
While you're tearing out my arteries
Used to call it love
Now it's something more than hate
Used to call it love
Now it's something more than hate

Say you're loyal, but you lie
You play the victim every time
Yeah you're a serpent when you bite
You're burning bridges, cutting ties

And I'm not saying that I'm perfect
Why am I the one that's always hurting?

You love to set my life on fire
Feel it burning in my veins
Sick of taking all this heat
Tired of catching all these strays
You keep screaming at me
Trying to tell me who to be
Baby it's obnoxious
Can't believe you used to be a part of me
Now it's getting hard to be
Stuck inside your heart
While you're tearing out my arteries
Used to call it love
Now it's something more than hate
Used to call it love
