

MUSCLE BOUND DENIZEN (?? ??)

Bilmuri

But I could be better
I run to the exit
In every direction
I'm still giving up

Degraded hope
A slow decay
A quick pain holds
It can't sustain

Slow Skin
It burns through glass eyes
Another lifeless heart
The dust moves
It shows a silence
So close to letting go
What does it matter
I can't make the exit
I'm hurt by the one who
I know I should be

Degraded hope
A slow decay
A quick pain holds
It can't sustain

It can't sustain

Bite my hand
And tear my wrist
And watch my face through broken lids
I take my time and melt the skin
I hate it all

Degraded hope
A slow decay
A quick pain holds
It can't sustain

I think I'll watch my slow skin
Burn into the ground
