

I know I'm lost, but please just hold on
And I'll find it myself, it's taking so long
But I'm not scared, like I was before
I don't feel so numb, put my chest off the floor

Ah, need you by my side right now
Oh, so I don't feel so lost in doubt
Ah, need you by my side right now
Oh, so I don't feel so lost in doubt

I know I'm lost in this place, so low
I don't know what's real anymore, more
It doesn't matter if you're next to me
Hold you in my arms and I can breathe

Ah, need you by my side right now
Oh, so I don't feel so lost in doubt
Ah, need you by my side right now
Oh, so I don't feel so lost in doubt

Ah, need you by my side right now
Oh, so I don't feel so lost in doubt

Ah, need you by my side right now
Oh, so I don't feel so lost in doubt

I don't feel so lost in doubt
I don't feel so lost in doubt
