

Quiet

Bilmuri

This thread it can burn
Feels back at the center
After some time apart
Wanted it back together
Coffee stains in the carpet
Falls down through the floor
As the pain floods in
I start over

Can't stay quiet anymore
Can't keep my lips from speaking
As I'm lying on the floor
Can't keep my heart from feeling
Kept it close to the spark
Paint it black at the ends
To remove these scars
To start over

Feel the grey take over
With the weight of your words
If it's what you want
Then I understand

Can't stay quiet anymore
Can't keep my lips from speaking
As I'm lying on the floor
Can't keep my heart from feeling
I keep lying here awake
Can't keep my mind from thinking
I hold my heart in my hand
Can't keep my chest from sinking, oh
