

Scar

Bilmuri

Remember when I said I loved you
Fell apart when my heart was yours
You didn't tell me it's all okay
I turned away, couldn't take the pain
I want to know who you are again
But I'm scared to see your face

Do you still love me
Can I trust you again
Do you still love me
Cause I still wear the scars I have inside

Am I alone or are you here
Am I dead or can you fix me
There's still a place in my heart
Self protected from the scars
I want to believe you're still good

Do you still love me
Can I trust you again
Do you still love me
Cause I still wear the scars I have inside

Do you still love me
Can I trust you again
Do you still love me
Cause I still wear the scars I have inside

Do you still love me
Can I trust you again
Do you still love me
Cause I still wear the scars I have inside
