Not going to be over-dramatic
'Cause I understand, yeah I understand
Not going to be over-dramatic
'Cause I know you did what's best for both of us
I can take a little bit of pain to get these sutures out
I can take a little bit of pain to let you know

It feels good to say you were right
It feels good to give up the fight
And I know, I know I'll see you tonight
Want you to know, that it's alright
That I'm alright

Take my heart off of my sleeve
I don't know why I left it there so long
I feel so much to leave for you to know that you did nothing wrong
Learn from inside now
Don't need to stand across the room
Stand across the room

It feels good to say you were right
It feels good to give up the fight
And I know, I know I'll see you tonight
Want you to know that it's alright
That I'm alright

Take a breath
I feel this weight leave my chest
Take a breath
I feel this weight leave my chest
Take a breath
I feel this weight leave my chest
