

TALKIN' 2 UR GHOST

Bilmuri

I can take the fightin'
I can take it when you're angry
I can be the shoulder you can cry when you're lyin' on the floor
In a panic and you can't breathe

If you left an empty spot in your bed, it's the silence that would kill me most

So I'd be talkin' to your ghost
Yeah, I'd be talkin' to your ghost
And I'd be beggin' you to haunt me, askin' you to want me
My body would be so cold
Yeah, I'd be talkin' to your ghost

I've been havin' midnight conversations
Don't wanna waste my time, 'cause I know there's no replacement
I think I would end it if you left it and you left me to die
Gotta keep you off my mind if I tried

But you left an empty spot in your bed, it's the silence that would kill me most

So I'd be talkin' to your ghost
Yeah, I'd be talkin' to your ghost
And I'd be beggin' you to haunt me, askin' you to want me
My body would be so cold
Yeah, I'd be talkin' to your ghost

I'll lay my pride at the door, I don't need it
No, I can't fight anymore
I'm never leavin'

So I'd be talkin' to your ghost
And I'd be beggin' you to haunt me, askin' you to want me
My body would be so cold
Yeah, I'd be talkin' to your ghost
