

THE END

Bilmuri

Sun settin' in the background
What a way to set the scene
Yeah we could take another lap 'round
But it wouldn't change a thing

Oh no
This ain't one of those
Where I kiss you and you go
Maybe we'd find each other somewhere down the road
Guess I'm over trying
At making it right, well

I'm still getting these concussions
Throw my head against the wall
Turning nothing into something, making everything my fault
But you got me tore up, begging you to stay
I'm bleeding out from screaming out your name
Find a place to pull over
Tear stain on your shoulder
Two years is too long to still feel like I don't know ya
You always wonder what it'd be like if I left
Take a look around 'cause
You're staring at the end
You're staring at the end

There's no way we're going back now
No you ain't giving what I need
Yeah the crowd was getting too loud
Screaming out, saying I'm not gonna be

The one to pick up your pieces

Stop my life when you need it
Say you'll blame me for everything when you're leaving

I'm still getting these concussions
Throw my head against the wall
Turning nothing into something, making everything my fault
But you got me tore up, begging you to stay
I'm bleeding out from screaming out your name
Find a place to pull over
Tear stain on your shoulder
Two years is too long to still feel like I don't know ya
You always wonder what it'd be like if I left
Take a look around 'cause
You're staring at the end
(Guitar Solo)

I'm still getting these concussions
Throw my head against the wall (Throw my head against the wall)
Turning nothing into something, making everything my fault
But you got me tore up, begging you to stay
I'm bleeding out from screaming out your name
Find a place to pull over
Tear stain on your shoulder
Two years is too long to still feel like I don't know ya

You always wonder what it'd be like if I left
Take a look around 'cause (Take a look around)
You're staring at the end