

TOO LATE

Bilmuri

Last time I saw you, saw it almost pull me under Don't give me one thing, cause one thing leads to another
And I start missing you, wishing you were still here
When all I really need is all I don't wanna hear

So, tell me I'm the worst and you hate me now
Drag me through the dirt
Make it hurt like hell
Don't leave me with a lie I can tell myself
Please, tell me that it's too late now
(Tell me that it's too late now)

How does asking how you are always turn into Finding your way back inside of my arms
Knowing you I know whats next
5am, I'm a mess
Asking could you come over
But it's over

So, tell me I'm the worst and you hate me now

Drag me through the dirt
Make it hurt like hell
Don't leave me with a lie I can tell myself
Please, tell me that it's too late now

No, there's no looking back
No over again
Don't tell me that you're feeling sad
This will happen over again
Don't regret what we had
Baby leave it in the past
It's not enough (not enough)
To start looking back

So, tell me I'm the worst and you hate me now
Drag me through the dirt
Make it hurt like hell
Don't leave me with a lie I can tell myself
Please, tell me that it's too late now

Too late now
Tell me that it's too late now
Too late now
Tell me that it's too late now
