

Nightshift

Bingo Players

I'm barely holding on
Waiting for you all damn week
Now all the stress is gone
I'm ready for that heat
I don't wanna try to fight it
No more, no more
The time that I spend with you
I adore, adore

Your goods keep me coming back
Over and over, tonight I'll show ya

I'm putting in a night shift
Oh, the days are too long
I don't wanna be alone without ya
I'm putting in a night shift
Take you into the dawn
I can find a hundred ways
Just saving up the days
For the night shift
Waiting for the night shift
Saving up the days
For the night shift
Waiting for the night shift
Saving up the days

Baby, the stakes are high
They never coming down
'Cause you know what you get with me
I can go another round
I can't even try and fight it
No more, no more
You're always right on time
That's for sure, for sure

Your goods keep me coming back
Over and over, tonight I'll show ya

I'm putting in a night shift
Oh, the days are too long
I don't wanna be alone without ya
I'm putting in a night shift
Take you into the dawn
I can find a hundred ways
Just saving up the days
For the night shift
Waiting for the night shift
Saving up the days
For the night shift
Waiting for the night shift

I got something for ya
Knows that I adore you
I been waiting for

The night shift

I don't wanna be alone without ya
I'm putting in a night shift
Waiting for the night shift
Saving up the days
For the night shift
Saving up the days
