

Landline

binki

So I just wait by the door
Don't know what I'm heading for
And if it's me and the beat
I'm keeping one on the floor

You're like a landline
Always keep my hands tied
Wonder how I like you and lie to you at the same damn time

What's up? Uh
Steady on repeat
I was numb
Give me third degree
Burns baby
I'm only window shopping
No room in my closet

I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one, the only one

Only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one, the only one

Ten, nine, everybody
Gimme gimme more
FaceTime crazy 'cause my face is always bored
What's your take?
Never have enough space
Waste a lot of time on you
And I'm gonna waste some more
Okay

Fight for it
Baby, I'm alone
More and more surprised
That I'm more and more at home

Stop playing around
Look at me now
I'm tasting
A little bit of everything

I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one, the only one

Only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one, the only one

Ever since my license

It got suspended
Worry bout the entrance
Worry bout the exit
How you so selective
Ain't been selected
Don't you got a mustang?
You don't want to rev it?

I don't ever want to be in pain
Stay up all night and the mornings never came React, and now you want to call it crazy
She ask, am I a figment of imagination?

I wanna be the only one you need
I wanna be the only one, the only one

Only one you need
I wanna be the only one, the only one
