

Do you give a fuck 'bout me?
They say that love is blind, let's see
Your IG got me weak in the knees
I saw you once in person like jeez
You dye your hair like every week
No degree, but you got a fake I.D
I know you got it all figured out girl
But let me be the person you could lean
On, leading me on
Say you don't know me, I wrote you a song
Millennial problems, I'm solo like Han
007 my word is my bond
Sometimes I feel stupid
Starting to feel like I'm beefing with cupid
Ocean between us, I'm blue like the navy
Fuck treading water, I need you to save me

I think I'm in love with you, girl
You just tell me what to do, yeah
I think I'm in love with you, girl
Nothing I won't do for you

You stung me, ow ow-ow ow-ow
And I fell out, upon the ground

You stung me, ow ow-ow ow-ow
And I fell out, upon the ground

Bury me in your brain
I just need attention 24/7, every day
Even on your off days
I will love you always
Forever is our destination, so let's go the long way
Why you wanna stop? Wait
You could be like Alice
In my wonderland a palace
You just have to promise
You won't stop, the feelings that you're having
'Cause if I get my heart, broken
That would be a bad moment
And I will send some bad omens
Till you take me back, love me

I think I'm in love with you, girl
You just tell me what to do, yeah
I think I'm in love with you, girl
Nothing I won't do for you

You stung me, ow ow-ow ow-ow
And I fell out, upon the ground

You stung me, ow ow-ow ow-ow
And I fell out, upon the ground
