

Everything Turns

Binocular

When everything falls apart and you can't make out the end and you live life in the dark without pretense to pretend

Nobody led you through the darkness whenever the changing tides would turn nobody told you and reminds you nobody ever let you learn

That everything turns everything turns around the prince becomes the pauper and the king becomes the clown

So you face another day with the loneliness inside but you can't pick up pieces when they promised you and lied

Nobody led you through the darkness
whenever the changing tides would turn
nobody told you and reminds you

the prince becomes the pauper and the king becomes the clown

Everything turns around 'round i said everything turns around round round everything turns around 'round
i said everything turns around round round

The prince becomes the pauper and the king becomes the clown
'cause everything turns everything turns around the slave becomes the master and the fool receives the crown and everything turns
