Penalty

Biohazard

What's inside my state of mind, can you deal with reality? Who pays the price for hating, who decides our final fate? Can you reall trust the government, can you really believe the truth?

Will you die for what you believe or will you suffer like a foo 1?

Sacrifice, penalty

You gave your life

And paid the price of hate

Is there anyone you can count on when it's time to do things right?

Or are these people just fucking maggots sucking you for all your life?

Who looks out for our best interests, who cares about their fel low man?

Or are we all just fucking animals fucking each other anytime w e can?

Who's gonna beg for mercy When the time to fight back comes Get down on bended knee and pray For our salvation
