

Tear Down the Walls

Biohazard

Tear down, the walls
Tear down the walls

Limb from limb, I tear to shreds
The construct of my mind
A prison of my own design
I locked myself inside

Tear down the walls
With time, war in my mind
Seeking the truth, but what will I find
The darkest secrets hide behind
Tear down the walls

Tear down the walls
Tear down the walls
Tear down the walls

With everything I've got
I wage the war til my last breath
With all my might, and all my heart
Life ascends to death

Tear down the walls
Pain and death, the truth the lies
The demons come for my demise
Seduction wears its own disguise
Tear down the walls

Torn limb from limb
I tore to shreds, the construct of my mind
A prison of my design, locked inside
Pain and death, truth and the lies
My demise
Tear down the walls that hold me back

Limb from limb, I tear to shreds
The construct of my mind
A prison of my own design
I locked myself inside

Tear down the walls
With time, war in my mind
Seeking the truth, but what will I find
The darkest secrets hide behind
Tear down the walls

Pain and death, the truth the lies
The demons come for my demise
Seduction wears its own disguise
Tear down the walls
