

Understand you're my bright light
You're stunning, you, you're stunning, you
As I lay to rest knowing that your heart's on my chest
Then we had that one night
Where we all fell through, where we all fell through
As I lay to rest without your heart on my chest

It was a blossom day, it was an awful night
What happened here, I couldn't tell you
I've done Chardonnay, I've done half a bag
I put violence, I put fire
Dying away you call, you call
Dying away, you call, you call
Your show's off, new stuff, new stuff
Time to move forward and just don't be my wife anymore

Understand you're my bright light
You're stunning, you, you're stunning, you
As I lay to rest knowing that your heart's on my chest
Then we had that one night
Where we all fell through, where we all fell through
As I lay to rest without your heart on my chest

It was a blossom day, it was an awful night
What happened here, I couldn't tell you
I've done Chardonnay, I've done half a bag
I put violence, I put fire
Dying away you call, you call
Dying away, you call, you call
Your show's off, new stuff, new stuff
Time to move forward and just don't be my wife anymore

Understand you're my bright light
You're stunning, you, you're stunning, you
As I lay to rest knowing that your heart's on my chest
Then we had that one night
Where we all fell through, where we all fell through
As I lay to rest without your heart on my chest

We're living a lie deep inside
We're living a lie deep inside
We cast a fire deep inside
When the truth will rise, when the truth will rise
We're living a lie deep inside
We're living a lie deep inside
We cast a fire deep inside
When the truth will rise, when the truth will rise

You're filled with the same lies
You've sealed the whole life
The light died, the light died
I'm dimming the lights, I'm dimming the lights
We shine a light, together, together
This together, together

Understand you're my bright light
You're stunning, you, you're stunning, you

As I lay to rest knowing that your heart's on my chest
Then we had that one night
Where we all fell through, where we all fell through
As I lay to rest without your heart on my chest
