Bipolar Sunshine

Fighting
We need a truce in writing
I got her all in her feelings
I couldn't make it easy
Easy
Wallin'
That's what you got involved with
Wish I could say sorry
Ignored you when you called me

Now I'm lonely and hopeless
It's all 'cus you provoked these emotions
Was so shallow still you dived in Reacting to the scars I left open

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you
Focus on you

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you
Focus on you
Focus on you
Focus on you

You're out of mind
Swear you love
Playing hard ball
It's too late
We went under
Without no goodbyes
Don't know why
I wanted more
Cuz ain't no heaven
On this ride
Sorry just can't be your answer

Now I'm lonely and hopeless
It's all cuz I provoked these emotions
Was so shallow still I dived in
Reacting to the scars you left open

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you
Focus on you

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you
Focus on you

All the promises were broken
Should of given more time
If I cherished every moment
You wouldn't be so hard to find

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you

Focus on you
Focus on you
Focus on you

Can't be close
Now we loathing
Shade we throw
I believed
I believed for a while
Now we're ghosts
And we know it
We loathing
I believed

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you
Focus on you

I should of given you more focus
Focus on you
Focus on you
Focus on you
Focus on you
