

JUST ANOTHER WEEKEND

Bipolar Sunshine

I woke in my morning feeling godly
I called this pretty ting from time ago
She said she's gonna meet me at the party
So I called my goons and said we gotta roll

Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend
Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend

Now I'm sitting in the back with all my homies
Talking shit – now you know how it goes
She noticed when we walked inside the party
Spotlight on the gang like it's a show

Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend
Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend

Now I'm leaning in the back, she's acting naughty
She whispered in my ear, "you tryna go?"
I looked her in the eye and said, "you ready?"
Grabbed her hand and walked out through the door

Now she's sitting in the back with all my homies
I told my boy to drop me on the way
As soon as I got in that crib, it's popping
She threw me on her couch and had her way

Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend
Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend

Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend
Just another
Just ano-
Just another weekend
