Bipolar Sunshine

Surrounded by faces
A beautiful place I'm alone
In a city of lights
But it's you that I call my home

As I pick up the pieces
Cheated the chance I didn't get to choose
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you

It's the taste of temptation
I'm walking away into something new
What am I to do?
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you
I'd rather be with you, you, you, you, you

I'd rather be with you...
I'd rather be with you...
