

ROMANCE

Bipolar Sunshine

The common cause
Of all these broken souls
Is a ghost
That pulls me deep down low
And all I know
Is I don't need this, no
I can't be on this side

I knew the love that you were bout to throw away to waste
Was part of me
But now my heart is broke apart
I'm dancing through the pain

I look stupid when I dance
Face down hands in my pants
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance

Spiked punch and photo stands
Tonight here goes my chance
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance

Jaded, when my minds faded
Ain't no substitute for what I'm taken
Chasing you is gonna cost my soul
But I know, I can't be on this side

I knew the love that you were bout to throw away to waste
Was part of me
But now my heart is broke apart
I'm dancing through the pain

I look stupid when I dance
Face down hands in my pants
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance

Spiked punch and photo stands
Tonight here goes my chance
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance

Call it romance
Ca-call it romance
Ca-call it romance
Ca-call it romance, yeah

(I look stupid when I dance
Face down hands in my pants
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance)

(I look stupid when I dance
Face down hands in my pants
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance)

I look stupid when I dance
Face down hands in my pants
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance

Spiked punch and photo stands
Tonight here goes my chance
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance

Spiked punch and photo stands
Tonight here goes my chance
Hearts beating, bam bam bam
Aren't we all feeling for romance
