

Undone

Birdpen

The night, goodbye fear
I drown my tears
A warm embrace
Before I leave this place

I need the light, I need something
Give me light, something beautiful

Your eyes so silver
How did I become so undone?
And take me to the ocean
Let it go, let it go

I need the light, I need something

Give me light, something beautiful
I need the light, I need something
Give me light, something beautiful (something beautiful)

Letting go, letting go
Letting go, letting go
