

Puzzle

Birds of Tokyo

Waking up, tryin' to hide
I don't think it feels good
Turned away, on your side
Your sunlight's so cold

Trembling hearts beat too hard
I don't think it feels good
Let it hurt
I know it's worth my everything and more

Will you lie to me 'til I fall asleep?
'til your words make it all disappear
Will you say to me that you don't believe
We're a part of a world without fear

[Chorus:]

The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'm re-arranging
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I keep on guessing
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'm re-arranging
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'll keep on guessing

Scattered thoughts paint the walls
I don't think it feels good
My kingdom's gone
Now I belong to fear I've never known

Will you lie to me 'til I fall asleep?
'til your words make it all disappear
Will you say to me that you don't believe
We're a part of a world without fear

[Chorus:]

The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'm re-arranging
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I keep on guessing
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'm re-arranging
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'll keep on guessing

It's all for you
It's all for you
I'd give it all
For you I'd sell my crown
It's all for you
It's all for you
I'd give it all
For you I'd sell my crown

(the puzzle in my head keeps changing)
(the puzzle in my head keeps changing)

[Chorus:]

The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'm re-arranging
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I keep on guessing
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'm re-arranging
The puzzle in my head keeps changing
For you I'll keep on guessing

Waking up, tryin' to hide
I don't think it feels good
Turned away, on your side
Your sunlight's so cold
