

The Greatest Mistakes

Birds of Tokyo

It was thirteen years ago
When I thought I knew it all
I made the greatest mistakes
It doesn't always go to plan
But I'd played whatever hand
That I had thrown in my face

Time and again I'd keep on returning
To the greatest mistakes I've made
But I'm learning
This journey, it ain't over for me

It was thirteen months ago
When I went through hell alone
I must be fucking insane
I remember everything
Like a needle to the skin
Sometimes we learn from the pain

Time and again I keep on returning
To the greatest mistakes I've made
But I'm learning
This journey, it ain't over for me
It ain't over for me

I'm done wasting all my time
On perfection
All my failures are the reason
I am who I am
Now I'm here I know the greatest
Mistakes are forever
But I'm alright
But I'm alright

It was thirteen days ago
When I found myself alone
I broke a good thing again
Cos a right don't fix a wrong
But I've known it all alone
Back to the start and begin

Time and again I keep on returning
To the greatest mistakes I've made
But I'm learning
This journey, it ain't over for me
It ain't over for me
It ain't over for me

Time and again I keep on returning
To the greatest mistakes I've made
But I'm learning
This journey, it ain't over for me
