

Holy Roller Coaster

Birdtalker

When you're up all night and it ain't your fire
Let it out on me, let the flame lick higher
Yeah, you're speaking in tongues of an ancient body, let go
I'm waking up to my heart, hey

Holy roller coaster
You've grown a little bit taller
You are awake in your eyes
Heal the hole in my heart
There is no other way than through it
Ha ha hey

Hey mama, are you feeling alright?
I wanna be the onion in your egg foo young
I'm coming over, yeah, to bang your drum
I want to know that we can dance through all the changes
I wanna love you, hey, I want to find you

Holy roller coaster
You've grown a little bit taller
You are awake in your eyes
Heal the hole in my heart
There is no other way than through it
Ha ha hey
