

Roll Down

Birdtalker

Do you ever feel like we're on a hill in a dream
Rolling down, down to the bottom of a rolling sea
Tattered wheels are turning but the motor is dead
I forget, was there a moment that pushed us over the edge?

I don't wanna talk about it
I just wanna roll down
And we can work it out
Maybe when we hit the ground
Oh, but baby for now
I don't wanna talk about it
I just wanna roll

Do you ever wonder, does a leaf ever scream
When the breeze finally wins and plucks it from the tree
Got a sinking feeling that we're gonna survive
After all the leaves have fallen and the screams subside

I don't wanna talk about it
I just wanna roll down
And we can work it out
Maybe when we hit the ground
Oh, but baby for now
I don't wanna talk about it
I just wanna roll
I just wanna roll
Down
'Cause I don't wanna talk about it
I just wanna slow down
And we can work it out
Maybe when we hit the ground
Oh, but baby for now
I don't wanna talk about it
I just wanna roll
