

Surrender

Birdy

Strange this wilderness inside
The heart drifts from hot to cold
You think it can't make up its mind
But suddenly it's always known
Suddenly it's always known

And if I could reach the Northern Lights
Maybe then I'd understand it all
Sometimes I try so hard to fight
When all I want to do is fall
Into the night
Into your arms, surrender

Delays on the District line
Looking at pictures on my phone
And I said I didn't miss you but I lied
I told myself I let you go
Told myself I let you go

And if I could reach the Northern Lights
Maybe then I'd understand it all
Sometimes I try so hard to fight
When all I want to do is fall
Into the night
Into your arms, surrender
Surrender
Surrender

And if I could reach the Northern Lights
Maybe then I'd understand it all
Sometimes I try so hard to fight
When all I want to do is fall
Into the night
Into your arms, surrender

Into the night
Into your arms, surrender
