

Keep Your Eyes Shut

Birth of Joy

Hey what you doing I see you through
How can you deal wit the night
You ain't succeeding you're bound to lose
No go back stand in the line
Oh so sad and oh so sad
Oh so sad and sadder than sadness
You keep your eyes shut
No way of proving or showing you
You ain't doing it right
There's no meaning in being you
Cause you're living a lie
Once I knew another you
Are you still alive
You've been seeking
It started to
Look back with its eyes
