

Mona Lisa On A Mattress

Bishop Briggs

Dancing, screaming, secrets in the dark
Hell is knowing that you're perfect just the way you are
Is it crazy I would go and do it all again
Knowing we were done before we ever had a chance?

Cigarettes and colours in the sky
Little non-committal in the middle of July
'Cause I was dating someone who just didn't understand
It's like you knew me before I walked in

I want you to knock my lights out
Kiss me so hard 'til we pass out
Bite on your lip, your blood in my mouth
Just want to feel something like right now, right now

Didn't want to see what was underneath
All of the warning signs, my heart was blind
Kate would always say I should run away but
I made up my mind

I want you to knock my lights out
Kiss me so hard 'til we pass out
Bite on your lip, your blood in my mouth
Just want to feel something like right now, right now

You say I'm pretty like an actress
Your Mona Lisa on a mattress
Want you to light a million matches
Burn up my heart until it's ashes, ashes

I lost all my innocence
Learning how to love again
We were done before we started
Didn't wanna be just friends
I just wanted love again

I want you to knock my lights out
Kiss me so hard 'til we pass out
Bite on your lip, your blood in my mouth
Just want to feel something like right now, right now

I want you to knock my lights out
Kiss me so hard 'til we pass out
Bite on your lip, your blood in my mouth
Just want to feel something like right now
Right now