

Undone

Bishop Briggs

I've been running away, been losing my faith
In everything I've done
And the higher I climb, close my eyes every night
I'm scared of the downfall

I wanna know, I wanna know
If I lay by your side, let the world pass me by
I wanna know, I wanna know
If you saw all of my damages, would you know how to manage it?
'Cause sooner more than later
I'll come undone

I'm on the edge of a meltdown if I'm really being honest
Said you'd love my best and worst
Congratulations, you got it
I'll come undone
I'll come undone
I'll come undone, done

It's been ten thousand weeks, I'm grinding my teeth
Tears staining my sheets, I'm ready to go
Ready to leave
And I'm in the middle of running through water
Flooding the trenches
Heart in a head-lock
God don't look at me
I can't save me
I'm losing my mind

I'm on the edge of a meltdown if I'm really being honest
Said you'd love my best and worst
Congratulations, you got it
I'll come undone
I'll come undone
If you saw all of my damages, would you know how to manage it?
Undone
I'll come undone
I'll come undone, done

I wanna know, I wanna know
If I lay by your side, let the world pass me by
I wanna know, I wanna know
If you saw all of my damages, would you know how to manage it?
'Cause sooner more than later
I'll come undone
