

At The Cinema

Bitch Alert

You're sitting next to me,
you don't know what to say to me, you're afraid that I might just worship you, tie myself to you

You're sitting next to me,
you're staring at the screen, you cannot see me, I'm not here
They found the fountain of the endless love

Boy you hurt me, too much

Chorus: Take me on, on your own

You're sitting next to me,
you're taking my hand, turning away from me, I can't wait Cuz every time you choose you choose the same

You're sitting next to me,
you're so afraid you cannot please me, make me satisfied
They found the fountain of the endless love

Chorus:
Take me on, on your own
