

Salty air

Bitter:Sweet

Day after day
Watching time go by
Staring at the lonely face of winter in your eyes
Knowing that the calm before the storm weighs on my mind

I long for lazy days
I long for lazy days
I long for lazy days of summertime (too tasty)

Rain more rain
Washing all my dreams away
My skin is stinging from the chill you left me when you came

I long for lazy days
I long for lazy days
I long for lazy days of summertime
(soaking up the rays)

I long for lazy days of summertime
(a sun drenched divine)
The perfect blend of salty air and wine (too tasty)
I long for lazy days
I long for lazy days
I long for lazy days of summertime
Summertime... (I long for lazy days)
