Bizzle

Shhh
Bizzle
Yeah
Um

Blessed with a gift
That'd lift their curses
I'm telling the truth in all of my verses
Watch as all of the frauds is finna get called to the surface
Money, women and cars ain't talking
And all of it worthless
Bet they'll fall to the dirt quick, when they learn they're Partially responsible for all of the hearses
And all the hurt kids, many in jail right now
Tryna get that guap, tryna get what you got
But he just got locked, gonna mention the cop
One of them big fat rocks
Why you lie? You said to get that
You had to hit that block
Homie, that's show money, and if it wasn't for that You'd have no money, so don't go dummy
I got a mind full of wisdom, a heart full of pain
Having to watch y'all kids fall in the graves
Following y'all, getting lost in the maze
Dropped off in a coffin while y'all in a Range
Even the few cats that really did that
If you get 'em in a room, they'd tell you it ain't cool
But they gotta do what they gotta do
Move how they gotta move
We done all been there before
I can't just pack that envelope
But I'm real enough to give it up
And admit I was just being selfish though
Most of 'em ain't gon' tell it though
'Cause of the money they sell it for
Quit living this life through a hell-oscope
For this message, I'm prepared to go
Oh yeah, it's going down

Hahaha, yeah
Aight, that's it
I'm showing y'all too much
I'm 'bout to mess around
And make my album sound whack
Yeah
