

Down, Pt. 2

Bizzle

This anxiety keeps coming over me
I tried to cast my care but is still there, it doesn't leave
Why am I still down? (Why am I so down?)
Why am I still down? (Why am I so down?)
Ain't I suppose to be covered in Your peace?
I know you said that I would be above and not beneath
Then why am I so down? (Why am I so down?)
Why am I so down? (Why am I so down?)
Down down down

Wish there was some place that I can hide myself
How can I get away from what's inside myself
I lay awake at night
So much I hold inside
I think I need to find
Some kind of peace of mind
Why do I go through depression
You tell me that I should have peace that surpasses understanding
Maybe I don't have the faith of a mustard seed
Try so hard but it seems mountains don't move for me, no
Am I just a victim, I'm just hopeless?
I just wanna know that I'll be okay
Father can you promise me it won't stay?
It gotta leave

This anxiety keeps coming over me
I tried to cast my care but is still there, it doesn't leave
Why am I still down? (Why am I so down?)
Why am I still down? (Why am I so down?)
Ain't I suppose to be covered in Your peace?
I know you said that I would be above and not beneath
Then why am I so down? (Why am I so down?)
Why am I so down? (Why am I so down?)
Down down down

Lately I've been beside myself
Feels like I'm losing me, help me find myself
So much is racing through my mind (Much on my mind)
Wish I could cut this off sometimes (Cut this sometimes)
What's this about? (Bout)
Is it just doubt? (Doubt)
Or is that some type of sin
I'm leaving out
I know this ain't what suppose to be (Spose to be)
Just woke up this already over me (Over me)
I know that as long that you holding me
Imma be cool so Jehovah stay close to me (Close to me)
I know you been with me since the beginning (Yeah)
I know as long as you with me I'm winning (Yeah)
I need your healing, I'm sick of this feeling (Yeah)
Lord, if you willing

This anxiety keeps coming over me
I tried to cast my care but is still there, it doesn't leave
Why am I still down? (Why am I so down?)
Why am I still down? (Why am I so down?)
Ain't I suppose to be covered in Your peace?

I know you said that I would be above and not beneath
Then why am I so down? (Why am I so down?)
Why am I so down? (Why am I so down?)
