

Fine Print

Bizzle

Man, I'm so tired of falling for the oldest trick in the book, ya' know? (C-Lite on the beat)

It's like the enemy gets you to stop looking at all that God said is yours
And gets you to focus in on that one things that God said you cannot have

See the enemy will make it look so good to you
Oh he'll sell it to you
But he ain't gonna tell you what it will cost you
Until it's too late

He tells ya "Come a little closer (closer) I saw you looking at the tree" (tree)

"Baby you know you wanna taste it (don't ya), so have all you can eat." (eat)

He tells ya, "Surely you will not die, no. (No!) It's all good, look at me"

"The one you're with, He sewed you down down down, (down)
But all I'm tryna do is set you free." (free, free, free!)

Before I give you the world you gotta sign
Your soul, I mean, your name on the dotted line
Do what thou will, there's no need for Adonai
Who needs the rules? Get all you can outta life

You were doing you tryna get it (clickin')
Skippin' all the terms and conditions (sinnin')
Now you realized you don't like it (like it)
Next time ya need to read the fine print (whoa)
The fine print, ya gotta read the fine print (fine print)
You never paid attention to the fine print (whoa)
Now you realized you don't like it (like it)
Cause ya never took the time to read the fine print

See, who the Son sets free, he is free indeed
Don't let the enemy tell you anything about your King

See all he's ever done is tell you lies (tell you lies)
If he can plant the seed up in your mind (in ya mind)
It's up to you to know, you don't have to let it grow
If you do the fruit produces in your life
It's by your desires you're enticed
And when it conceives brings sin alive
That sin will give birth to death in time
You have an enemy who knows this, and he's sayin'

Before I give you the world you gotta sign
Your soul, I mean, your name on the dotted line
Do what thou will, there's no need for Adonai
Who needs the rules? Get all you can outta life

You were doing you tryna get it (clickin')
Skippin' all the terms and conditions (sinnin')
Now you realized you don't like it (like it)
Next time ya need to read the fine print (whoa)
The fine print, ya gotta read the fine print (fine print)
You never paid attention to the fine print (whoa)
Now you realized you don't like it (like it)
Cause ya never took the time to read the fine print

See, who the Son sets free, he is free indeed
Don't let the enemy tell you anything about your King

Sin'll take you way deeper than you wanna go and make you stay eatin'
Could cost way more than you wanted to pay up, lost wife and kids cuz you wanted to lay up
Adam never thought that you and I, would suffer cuz he ate the fruit that God said
Not to, and the day you do, you die. But he dropped the rock when Satan threw the lie
Played with fire way too many times, felt the burn and made it out alive
Problem is you made it out and think you can take it, now you ain't afraid to die
Trust me dog, I know the feeling, the big writing is so appealing
The fine print though is so revealing, no negotiation, no revision. Gone!

You were doing you tryna get it (clickin')
Skipin' all the terms and conditions (sinnin')
Now you realized you don't like it (like it)
Next time ya need to read the fine print (whoa)
The fine print, ya gotta read the fine print (fine print)
You never paid attention to the fine print (whoa)
Now you realized you don't like it (like it)
Cause ya never took the time to read the fine print

Hallelujah! Praise and Glory to the Most High God!
Who sent his only begotten Son, Yeshua the Messiah, aka Jesus Christ.
That with His blood He would buy you out of that contract.
That He would wash your name off that dotted line,
So that you could be reunited, so that I could be reunited, so that we could be reunited;
With the Heavenly Father. Hallelujah!
