

For The Better

Bizzle

I just caught a vibe, I done came up (I done came up)
Livin' out the water, caught the wave up (I caught the wave up) (Splash)
I know Somebody died then He raised up (Raised up)
So did I, I'm not the same one
Sucker, duck a hater, tell 'em: "Stay up" (Stay up)
Some of y'all been hatin' on the change up (Since day one)
Threw it to your shooter for the layup (Layup)
Led the great depression, now I'm way up
I can peel the drop, juice for the block (Pay up)
I never gotta tell a lie for the guap (Pay up)
I rep G.O.M. when I'm in a spot (Pay up)
And pray the Son hit him like he's in a drop (Pay up)
They been tryna stop us for a while now (For a while now)
'Less your name is God, we don't bow down (We don't bow down)
It's God over money, rep it out loud (Out loud)
God over money, rep it out loud

A hater gonna hate, homie, let 'em (Homie, let 'em)
People talk, they can say whatever (Say whatever)
I know I said I would never (Would never)
Change up, but I changed and I did it for the better (Do it)

I just had to change what I aim for (Better)
I look to the sky, I don't aim low (Better)
I tried the other side and it ain't no (Better)
You can look inside, see I'm way more (Better)

They say the old me was more lit, though (More lit) (How?)
Couldn't be a father to my kids, though (To my kids, though)
Couldn't be the man for my revenue (Revenue)
'Cause he ain't sure the God that I live for
Lately you've been tryna get your mind right (Mind right)
Tell that hater do it from the sidelines (Sidelines)
If they don't hold you down when it's grind time (Grind time)
Can they be around when your life shines?
Some will only love you on your way down (Way down)
On to better things so you're fake now (Fake now)
Acting like mechanics in your face now
Like they wanna help, but they love it when you break down (Boo)
Just because you're from where you came from
Doesn't mean you gotta do the same stuff
Changed up, 'cause I couldn't take the same bus
That one doesn't go to my new destination

A hater gonna hate, homie, let 'em (Homie, let 'em)
People talk, they can say whatever (Say whatever)
I know I said I would never (Would never)
Change up, but I changed and I did it for the better (Do it)

I just had to change what I aim for (Better)
I look to the sky, I don't aim low (Better)
I tried the other side and it ain't no (Better)
You can look inside, see I'm way more (Better)
