

Here I Go

Bizzle

(Jahill Beats, holla at me, ah)

Ayy

I thought this was hip-hop

Can I get a piece?

You looking for

(DJ Ill Will)

Bizzle, I got the game on lock-up

Gave the game hope, but I ain't Obama

Chop hate down like a chainsaw, I'ma

Save my change and make it rain on mama, ha

I make it rain on wifey

Game full of snakes, so they may not like me

Why? 'Cause I don't keep saying that my chain all icy

And I rep God, why can't I? Bite me

I love God, yes, and I love Jesus

Say it all the time, homie, I so mean it

You hate that I put it in my rhymes, so be it

But I'ma keep saying it, dog, who you playing with?

Tired of the nonsense, all been away with it

Never thought the game would be all full of Satanists

World full of devils, and I'm tryna be a haven, an

Watch that couple, he lying, she faking it

That's gon' stop, that's on my

Life, I'ma put Christ back on top

And all that rap 'bout crack gon' flop

Stand up, man up, and take back y'all plight

And I, I won't let up, why would I? The flow better

Am I gon' shut up 'bout the Lord, homie? No, never

I'm not for selling my soul ever so I can blow cheddar

You should'a known better, come on, brethren

I'm off that, dog, get your tune right

Got up in the game, killing it, filling it with new life

Everything I said, I'm watching 'em all prove right

I don't rap through mics, I rap through Christ

Homie, don't fall for the Oakey

Next Fall, I'ma throw 'em all in a chokey

Put the devil in a headlock 'til his neck pop

Then drop with him over the bridge and bed stop

Uh-oh, look at the Christian, at it again

Adamant about rapping and not having a sin

Laughing at them, yapping about having the six

Why it seem only Ave mashing the accurate in?

I took who you're made in God and broke you in half

When I'm finished with him, he finna be my opening act

Hey, and I ain't saying no names

But I'm gunning for the top and I ain't playing no games

This hip-hop, ain't it? Quit cryin', baby

Coming for the crown, but I'm chilling, I'm waiting

I'm willing, I'm patient, in tip-top shape, and

This not gaming, Biz not playing

Paid my dues, what are you saying?

Been it since eight, hip-hop raised me

Saved in '08, quit it in '09

Back to rapping '010, right on time

Bizzle
