

Hold Me Down

Bizzle

Yeah

Listen

We ain't kids no more

Don't let them have you out there messing up a good thing

If you got a good woman let it be known

Don't go giving your homeboys the loyalty she deserve

One hunnid (Bizzle)

We were taught, never to commit, never love a chick

Had a momma so I shoulda known better from the get

While we were sitting round soaking all that hood game up

All we ever learned is how to mess a good thing up

Running round talking bout, "It's bro's over hoes though."

Okay

But what if she not one of those though

What if she do more for me than the homies put together

How you explain treating her like she don't though

Phone got cut off, she the one that threw in

Death in the family, she the one that flew in

Real talk, she been down longer than you've been

And she was here when I ain't have a gym to shoot in

If I flew in, 4AM, who's scoopin'

Every party you've been for me, who threw it?

How do you expect me to be loyal to you

And play her like now, disloyalty cool

All they ever taught us was to run it up

You can play with her but to stay with her, that's sucker stuff

You don't want nobody else lovin' her

If she worth it, then buckle down

I never meet anybody like her

So I had to go ahead and wife her

God willing Imma do right by her

So every now and then I remind her

That I love how she holds me down

I love how she holds me down

When you were nowhere to be found

I know that she held me down

You got a good thing don't play with it

You know that she the one gon' stay with it

You got a good thing don't play with it

You know that she the one gon' stay with it

If you know that she hold you down

Guess I'm a grown man now, so I feel different

Plus I'm a man of God, my version of real different

You still Will Smith-in

I'm tryna Phil Banks out here

And I ain't really with the Aunt Viv switchin'

Watch for the hypocrites and frauds that you kick it with

They'll have you doggin' the realest chick

Feelin' like a boss cause you did it or you soft for committing

But they stick around for them same qualities in you

I'm a real one, ain't no fake me that women get

You and her get the same me that's how real it is

Real talk, if I was you, I wouldn't trust me

If I could do her so wrong knowing she love me
Every dream that came true, she helped birth that Everything I got, her too, she earned that
You ever play chess
Then running around treating your queen like she a pawn ain't never made sense

All they ever taught us was to run it up
You can play with her but to stay with her, that's sucker stuff
You don't want nobody else lovin' her
If she worth it, then buckle down
I never meet anybody like her
So I had to go ahead and wife her
God willing Imma do right by her
So every now and then I remind her

That I love how she holds me down
I love how she holds me down
When you were nowhere to be found
I know that she held me down
You got a good thing don't play with it
You know that she the one gon' stay with it
You got a good thing don't play with it
You know that she the one gon' stay with it
If you know that she hold you down

Real talk fellas
If we can't commit to our women we can't commit to our families
And if we can't commit to our families, then we've already committed to chaos
For me it started with a commitment to God tho
And I ain't saying I got it right
But I'm committed to getting it right
