Bizzle

Wassup lil' homie what you sippin on
You got some problems but its more here and gone
Yo money messed up I feel you dog
But keep yo head up to the ceiling god
That Kush you rolling it only numbs the pain
But when yo high leave yo troubles stay
I know somebody who knows a better way
And Jesus is his name

I know it ain't all good
It's alright
Cuz when you tired of that life shut the door and come inside
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior
Meet my Savior
And I know you've been caught up in yo ways a long time
It's not to late to change or loose yo life
Meet My Savior

Yo job whack, Homie mine too
As I'm writing this I have a 9 to 5 like you
Don't be discouraged, that's just how life do
Keep yo grind, but just keep your dream alive too
You feeling tempted to go another way
But in the long term it never pays
That money comes, but it never stays
But Jesus will and that's on everything

I know it ain't all good
It's alright
Cuz when you tired of that life shut the door and come inside
Meet My Savior

Meet My Savior

As a child of the Lord I'm being as real as I can be
And letting you know God love you
Weather you the dealer or the fiend Coulda be a killer, Coulda been a thief Coulda been through that happened to me
Shoulda been a scholar, Coulda been a King, Coulda been just like me rapping to beats
But if rap was never yo thing
Just follow the dream he put inside you
Work your purpose on this Earth and surely he will higher you Steep into your calling and go all in

Ain't nothing wrong with falling, long as you get up dust it off and get it on again

I know it ain't all good
It's alright
Cuz when you tired of that life shut the door and come inside
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior
Meet my Savior
And I know you've been caught up in yo ways a long time
It's not to late to change or loose yo life
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior
Meet My Savior

I know you've been caught up in your ways a long time
Change or
