

Sin No More

Bizzle

1 sin, 2 sin, 3 sin, 4
Lord I don't want to sin no more
I've fallen can you pick me off the floor
Lord I don't want to sin no more
And now it's 5 sin, 6 sin, 7 sin, 8
I hear the devil say I can't change
I've fallen can you pick me off the floor
Lord I don't want to sin no more

Oh the vicious cycle, of sin it's like I might go
A week or two then peek-a-boo it's seeping through my iPhone
They make it on their Facebook, bent over on they Twitter
Making it difficult to focus as I trying to post this scripture
You say "ok we all look", that just opens the door though
Because these photos it get old
But I know where they got some more though
And nowadays chicks be hella nice to me my life can be
So stressful at times I've become blind to where that line should be
Trap is set feeling I have to vent my wife asleep
So now I'm up at 3 a.m. typing with Satan's knife in me
L.O.L, smiley face in all of our replies it seems Innocent but that's how begin to sin I'm killing it
Yeah

I'm-so sick of the same, same old pattern
Can't go back again feeling ashamed
Enemy laughing this ain't a game, got him in my ear like
Bizzle you fake, If I were to get you on tape
Would you be still unashamed?
If you were as real as you claimed
You wouldn't be slipping and people consider you saved
Lord is he right? Am I just a hypocrite spitting it
Knowing I'm a sin again though?
Does it really mean I'm not living it
Does everyone leaving me the minute I don't?
I feel like I keep resetting, I see that line and
I keep stepping over it and I keep repenting
Feeling one day I'll be rejected, Lord
You keep telling me your grace sufficient
And I know its just these moments got me thinking different
Wondering if my faith's consistent
And at what point do I begin to slip so often
It's the way I'm living

1 sin, 2 sin, 3 sin, 4
Lord I don't want to sin no more
I've fallen can you pick me off the floor
Lord I don't want to sin no more
And now it's 5 sin, 6 sin, 7 sin, 8
I hear the devil say I can't change
I've fallen can you pick me off the floor
Lord I don't want to sin no more
