Straight raising hell
Appearing to be real
But literally fake
I sit with a cheap meal
Pretending to eat steak
I live for the cheap thrills;
Pretending to be great
Till everything breaks
Never been to the top but I've seen the bottom
Well, at least I seen What I think is bottom
But we all believe that we done seen it all until we meet somebody
From beneath the bottom
And the things we whine about daily
They don't even see as problems
Honestly, with all I've been seeing
Its kinda hard not to think that we the problem
