

Too Long

Bizzle

Uh

I ain't the best singer in the world, but
You know I had to do a little somethin' to congratulate my wonderful wife
I'm gettin' a real estate license
You ain't 'bout to hold me down solo, I'm 'bout to hold you downer! (Let's go, Davis!)

Let's go

I was in high school, you were with me
Since that time you and I been we Headed to the west side in '03
You came to visit me and never did leave
You left everything back in Houston
Just to come sleepin' on the floor with me
Didn't ever went, we was both on feet
Then we got the tempo, it was on E
Dirty love is the savages
Never bein' wrong, you not the baddest
And I never even stooped to comparison
I found a hidden jewel and I married it
Turned on notifications (Heh heh)
Just to come in and like all my statuses (Yeah)
It's just that real for you, the whole way, I'm here for you
Say the word "I will" for you

You've been down for too long
Held your ground for too long
Girl, you act just like me
You've been 'round me too long
Baby, this your new song
Plus, you love me too strong
You so worthy, you deserve it
This your time now, you on

Yeah, started from the bottom, now we here (Yeah)
You done held me down my whole career (Yeah)
You believed in me before I had one
You deserve the world, baby, and some
What you need from me, babe, you got it
Ain't no way of sayin' butts about it
I'll be as involved as you need
Or I can play the background and watch it
Ain't no pressure on you, girl, I promise
Either way you go, you know I got us
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing
You can use your money for your shoppin' (Psych, heh)
No, I'm just playin', so don't try to hold me to that
I'm just frontin', 'cause more clothes need bigger closets
And bigger closets mean bigger houses, girl

You've been down for too long
Held your ground for too long
Girl, you act just like me
You've been 'round me too long
Baby, this your new song
Plus, you love me too strong
You so worthy, you deserve it

This your time now, you on
You've been down for too long
Held your ground for too long
Girl, you act just like me
You've been 'round me too long
Baby, this your new song
Plus, you love me too strong
You so worthy, you deserve it
This your time now, you on
