

Cheap Affection

BJ Lips

Putting on my cheap perfume
'Cause I'm going out tonight
Hopin' I'll run into you
'Cause I know you'll make it right
I just need to feel your touch
Even if it hurts tomorrow
But I won't feel it much
'Cause I'll drink away my sorrows

I'm craving you tonight
Give me your cheap affection
I just need a little bite
Even if you taste like poison
I'm craving you tonight
Give me your cheap affection
I just need a little bite
Even if you taste like poison

Underneath the flashing lights
I finally see you clearly
You promised you'll hold me tight
But your pretty words are empty
Always coming back for more
Tell myself, it's the last time
I'm addicted to being your whore
Always got you on my dirty mind

I'm craving you tonight
Give me your cheap affection
I just need a little bite
Even if you taste like poison
I'm craving you tonight
Give me your cheap affection
I just need a little bite
Even if you taste like poison
