

Going Once, Going Twice

BJ The Chicago Kid

She can be whatever you want her to be
I'm saying lord knows
She done showed your boy a whole lot things I done never seen
Sex, drugs, and rock 'n roll, you know she can't turn it down
So to any man that wants you, he can have you now

She like to party, have a good time, ain't nothing wrong
She control the vibe, play all her favorite songs
But when she roll up, put something in her cup
Don't you be scared cause she don't give a fuck
Cause her hair's hanging down cause she know her body right
Plus what she's on she could go all night
She's really what you want, dog she's just your type
I'm just trying to change my life
Going once and going twice

I know you've seen a lot of girls but she's the one you want
She can sex you up, cook a meal, and pay the bills all while she's on the ph one
She may talk a lot of shit but on the inside she really ain't tough, no
I could help her pack her stuff, hell I'll even rent the truck

She like to party, have a good time, ain't nothing wrong
She control the vibe, play all her favorite songs
But when she roll up, put something in her cup
Don't you be scared cause she don't give a fuck
Cause her hair's hanging down cause she know her body right
Plus what she's on she could go all night
She's really what you want, dog she's just your type
I'm just trying to change my life
Going once and going twice

Oh cause I found me a new one
She bad, so bad
She bad, so bad
Treats me better
So much better
Treats me better
So much better than you
I found me a good one
She bad, so bad
She bad, so bad
Treats me better
So much better
Treats me better than you

She like to party, have a good time, ain't nothing wrong
