

Tryna Relax

Blac Youngsta

Lost something
When I off something
No matter how bad you wanna stop this shit, you'll never be able to Yeah

Watching for my enemy
Watchin' out for family, gotta watch who play friend of me
All that negativity won't do it to me, can't take my energy
Put myself on game, I been woke up, these niggas, they been asleep
Talk to God every day right before I go to sleep
He put his trust in me, he know I see 'fore I cross the street
God done gave me eyes, so I can now see how they hated me
Crossed me out a million times, now I see how they baited me
Know the feds done hit my shit couple times when they raided me
God done gave me another chance, so I'm tryna walk faithfully
I'll be dead or in jail, what my teacher used to say to me
Left the bullshit behind, get you whacked if you play with me (Yeah)

But I can't do that 'cause I lost somethin'
That filled me up with this pain runnin' deep when I off somethin'
I done put faith in too many people, they was tryna cross somethin'
Rest in peace my dog, you know I lost one
Tryna relax (Tryna relax), but I can't do that 'cause I lost somethin'

That filled me up with this pain runnin' deep when I off somethin'
I done put faith in too many people, they was tryna cross somethin'
Rest in peace my dog, you know I lost one

Whole lot of deaths, I tell myself, life ain't gon' be the same
When I ain't had no lawyer, I fought for myself in that chain gang
Prosecutor tryna give me life, they just tryna make a name
Tryna make an example out of me, wanna see me burn in flames
Wanna put me in the chain gang 'cause they say we off the chain
923 big boy watch, no, that shit there not a game
I get you kidnapped, wrap you up before you drop a name
When I spin that block in the drop top, you know I'm too insane
When I caught my money, I blew his brain, you know I ain't leave a st ain
When you got shit on lock on your block, ain't no need to hang
If you tryna run that money up, then ain't no need to bang
I done seen gangsters put theyselves front and center for that fame

I'm tryna relax, but I can't do that 'cause I lost somethin'
That filled me up with this pain runnin' deep when I off somethin'
I done put faith in too many people, they was tryna cross somethin'
Rest in peace my dog, you know I lost one
