

The Basement

Black Buddafly

I think we should jus get on it
I don't know
Bout you but I kinda feel I want it
Been kicking it with ya and now u got me open
Usually I don't, let these niggas know
Just wait for them to go, make a move and be like oh, hold up
Are you worthy?
This is kinda early
Heard u sweatn all these other bad B's
I'm a lady
Turn em down unless they tryna wife me
But unlike then, tonight I might be
Ready
Badgirl steady
So what's good daddy

Lemme take a ride
And put all worries aside
Come rock-a-bye
You'll get yours and I'll get mine
I know a place no-one knows that we can find in the basement
In the base in the base in the basement
Let's get wild let's get right in the basement
Deep inside while we hide in the basement
Keep on grinding take your time in the basement
If they call hit decline you're in my basement

I can feel
Tension on 100 yea you work me
My body, burnin' I'm dripping like when I burpee
Up and down, that's how u got me now
While they're tearing down the streets, overpowering our sound
I hear them calling
We keep ignoring
Shut the door lock up lets take it up a knotch
Make the floor spin
2cond round we goin' cuz u keep it up
Got me wanting more so don't you dare stop
Baby
I'm badgirl steady
Tell me what's good daddy

Lemme take a ride
And put all worries aside
Come rock-a-bye
You'll get yours and I'll get mine
I know a place no-one knows that we can find in the basement
In the base in the base in the basement
Let's get wild let's get right in the basement
Deep inside while we hide in the basement
Keep on grinding take your time in the basement
If they call hit decline you're in my basement

And what happens in the basement, stays in the basement
I know you don't even care, just sayin'
If anybody hating, we just came down here for inspiration
Ain't no hesitation

Might go
Down low til the break of dawn
No sheets and pillows but it's on'
Bad girl still steady
So come again daddy

Lemme take a ride
And put all worries aside
Come rock-a-bye
You'll get yours and I'll get mine
I know a place no-one knows that we can find in the basement
In the base in the base in the basement
Let's get wild let's get right in the basement
Deep inside while we hide in the basement
Keep on grinding take your time in the basement
If they call hit decline you're in my basement
