

Benefit Of Doubt

Black Comedy

Avoid the consequences
Can't stand by your own actions
Get your savior who has power to free you from these sanctions
A Jesus in disguise
A lawyer who believes he's Christ
(yeah) This is what it's all about - manipulate the benefits of doubt!

Freedom at an expense... (what!)
American justice, tell me what's it meant to be?
Controlled by law to what degree?
An institute with such weak competence

Based on honor with no substance
Ingredients stable with the media focus
Turning courts into goddamn circus
We're guided by a greed which makes no exception
Practice prestige!
Who cares if defendant is guilty?

Lying, acting - is this how you'll win?
Fighting for freedom - verdict makes no sense

It won't be luck or faith that will bring this country together
Nor the touch god or the fund-sucking congressmen (when...)
Truth is at absence!

...And these frivolous needs of our society
Renders every man his due?
These words have no meaning to me
Cause this system stands without a clue
Profit beats the way of clear conscience
Justice in the hands of truly blind goddess
We're guided by a greed which makes no exception
Money exceeds as truth limps on

Lying, acting - is this how you'll win?

What an illusion
That we ever could believe
That man would put equality above his own personal greed
There's innocence, there's pride
Then tell me why they're used to undermine mans greatest... LIES!

It's the right to disagree, it's the right to say
That the system often fails but who'll be the one to pay
Not the judges hiding behind their books, not lawyer's firms
But the everyday citizen in a society that burns!

Truth is at absence!
A truth opposite of meaning
Still accept it through and through
Look again to see who's bleeding
You think it doesn't concern you -well do you?
